Please note:

- SilverAndGold will hold your order awaiting funds for up to two business days. Wire transfers from approved banks are typically received within one business day. However, after two business days, SilverAndGold.com does have the right to sell the requested item to another buyer.
- SilverAndGold does not accept Automatic Clearing House (ACH) payments. This type of payment will be rejected by our financial institution. Please be sure your payment includes any applicable taxes, shipping charges, crating and other fees. Email any SilverAndGold.com representative for a complete invoice and details before transferring any funds.
- Important notice for Bank of America customers - Use same-day bank wire option:
If you are wiring funds through Bank of America online, please select the same-day bank wire option to ensure the funds are properly received by SilverAndGold. Bank of America's online service also offers one (1) and three (3) day bank wire options which are both considered ACH transfers and will be rejected.
- Sending a bank wire transfer from overseas?
When sending bank wires overseas, there are intermediary banks that charge additional fees prior to the funds being received at SilverAndGold's bank. Please inform your bank that you require the exact amount of your order to reach SilverAndGold, so they advise you how much you will need to send in order to cover all applicable fees.
